Description

Welcome to this spacious detached villa available for rent, offering comfortable family living across generous internal space. This home features five bright bedrooms, providing plenty of room for relaxation, study, or work.

Enjoy peaceful days in the villa's open, airy interior, filled with natural light thanks to wide windows throughout the living and dining areas. The layout supports flexible furnishing, allowing you to make the most of the space according to your own style. Step outside to find a private swimming pool—a perfect retreat for cooling off on warm days or entertaining in privacy with friends and family.

This villa comes unfurnished, giving you the freedom to personalize each space to suit your taste and needs, or could be furnished upon request.
